

Alexander Gorlizki and Riyaz Uddin. Quorum. New York City, USA and Jaipur, India, 2008. ROM 2009.11.2. Courtesy Royal Ontario Museum. Photo: Brian Boyle

WORLDS OF THE CONTEMPORARY GLOBAL:

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

Friday November 25, 2011

Munk School of Global Affairs Room 108N

APPROACHES FROM THE

Centre for South Asian Studies

FACULTY

9:00-9:15 AM

Opening Remarks

Meric Gertler, Dean, Faculty of Arts and Science

Joseph Wong, Director, Asian Institute

9:15-9:30 AM

Introduction: Global Designs & Designations

Ritu Birla, Director, Centre for South Asian Studies; Associate Professor, Department of History

9:45-11:45 AM

Visual Regimes, Technologies, Genealogies

The Aesthetics of Discrepant Globalization: Monumental Statues in Post-Liberalization India

Kajri Jain, Associate Professor, Visual Studies UTM & Department of Art

Indian Painted Photographs through a Transnational Lens: Reflections on the Status of the Photograph Today

Deepali Dewan, Assistant Professor, Department of Fine Art; Associate Curator South Asian Art, Royal Ontario Museum

Respondent: Elsbeth Brown, Associate Professor, Department of History; Director, Centre for the Study of the United States

U of T South Asia faculty consider worlds—political, imaginative, material, aesthetic—that exist inside/outside global space

1:30-3:30 PM

Political Circuits and Mediations

The Intimacy of Human and Animal

Nais Dave, Assistant Professor, Department of Anthropology

Media Modern: Echoes of the Street in a Tamil Newspaper

Frank Cody, Assistant Professor, Department of Anthropology UTM & the Asian Institute

Respondent: Joshua Barker, Associate Professor, Department of Anthropology

3:45-5:45 PM

Neoliberal Environments

Recycling Urban Commons: (Electronic)Waste, Value and Labor in Bangalore, India

Raj Narayanareddy, Assistant Professor, UTSC & the Department of Geography & Program in Planning

Planning, Insurgent Publics and the Cultural Politics of Governance in 'Post-Conflict' Nepal

Katharine Rankin, Associate Professor, Department of Geography & Program in Planning

Respondent: Kanishka Goonewardena, Associate Professor, Department of Geography & Director, Program in Planning

6:00 PM RECEPTION SOUTH HOUSE LOUNGE (156S), MUNK SCHOOL OF GLOBAL AFFAIRS