First Law of the Land: Sharing from the Great Dish

Learn from Indigenous knowledge keepers about the Dish With One Spoon wampum agreement—the first law of the territory in which our University of Toronto community is located. Teachings by Richard W. Hill (Beaver Clan of the Tuscarora Nation) and Alan Ojig Corbiere, Bne doodem (Ruffed Grouse clan) will be followed by a discussion facilitated by Heidi Bohaker (U of T History).

All welcome
This event is open to the public - members of Indigenous communities are most welcome.

Please RSVP on Eventbrite, or to jacq.briggs@mail.utoronto.ca or chandra.murdoch@mail.utoronto.ca so we can estimate numbers.

Tuesday, May 21, 2019
10:00 am–12:00 pm

Kruger Hall Commons
Woodsworth College
119 St. George Street
Toronto, Ontario
Kruger Hall Commons is an accessible space.

University funding for this event has been generously provided by the Department of History, the Centre for Criminology and Sociolegal Studies, and Woodsworth College.