

CATHERINE LAROCHELLE

SCHOOL OF RACISM: A CANADIAN HISTORY

DR. CATHERINE LAROCHELLE, UNIVERSITÉ DE MONTRÉAL

Please join us for a discussion of the recently-released English translation of Catherine Larochelle's School of Racism. The original French version of the book won a number of prizes, including the CHA's Clio-Québec prize, the IHAF's Lionel-Groulx Prize, and the ACHE-CHEA book prize. Larochelle is a professor of history at the Université de Montréal and a member of HistoireEngagée.ca's editorial board. She is the co-host of the podcast Persistence coloniale and is interested in the different ways history is written and disseminated in Quebec.

WEDNESDAY
24 JANUARY

1PM-3PM
SS2098

SNACKS WILL BE SERVED

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
FACULTY OF ARTS & SCIENCE

Department of History