

BISHOP WHITE CANADA 150 SYMPOSIUM

NOVEMBER 4, 2017

Chinese Experience in Canada

Past, Present & Future

R·M

ROYAL ONTARIO MUSEUM

LOWER ROTUNDA

8:30 AM – Coffee

ROM THEATRE

9:15 AM

Welcome

Liz Mitchell, Bishop White Committee President

Greetings

Josh Basseches, ROM Director & CEO

Program Introduction

Dr. Chen Shen, Vice President World Cultures,
Senior Curator of Chinese Art and Cultures

9:25 – 10:10 AM

Imagining Home, Creating Canada: 150 Years of Chinese Canadian Communities

Professor Lisa Mar, Richard Charles Lee

Chair in Chinese Canadian Studies, and Associate Professor, Department of History, University of Toronto

10:15 – 11:15 AM

Today's Chinese Canadian Generation

A panel discussion moderated by Justin Poy,
President and Director of the Justin Poy Agency.

Young Chinese Canadians will share their experiences in business, the arts, and Canadian life today.

11:20 AM - 12:05 PM

Light Refreshments

12:10 - 12:55 PM

The Chinese Student Experience in Canada: A Global Education

Joseph Wong

Vice-Provost & Associate Vice-President,
University of Toronto
Ralph and Roz Halbert Professor of Innovation,
Munk School of Global Affairs
Professor, Political Science, University of Toronto

1:00 - 1:45 PM

The ROM's Role as the Guardian of Chinese Artifacts Now and in the Future

Dr. Chen Shen, Vice President World Cultures,
Senior Curator of Chinese Art and Cultures

Dr. Chen Shen invites all participants to visit the Chinese galleries, and explore the artifacts showcased in this presentation.

Richard Charles Lee Directorship
Generously supported by Danuta and Walter Buczynski
Lynne Tuer